

Tuesday

5 THINGS YOU DON'T KNOW ABOUT

Dreama Walker

In honor of the Season 2 premiere of ABC's deliciously wicked comedy Don't Trust the B---- in Apt. 23, we present a crash course on costar Dreama Walker. —Ingela Ratledge

1. She's as sweet as she seems. "I am like June," admits Walker of similarities to her alter ego, the non-b---- in Apt. 23. "I'm very empathetic and I love warm, cuddly things like bunny slippers and Disney movies. People always think that we went to high school together...even when there's a large age gap."

2. She's all for girl power. Walker and her costar Krysten Ritter, who plays Chloe, shamelessly give the set a female-dominated vibe. "We don't sit around and talk about maxi pads all day, but we do objectify men!" she says.

3. She's a TV nerd. Tonight's episode involves a Dawson's Creek reunion for James Van Der Beek's "character," complete with appearances by Busy Philipps and...Saved by the Bell alum Mark-Paul Gosselaar? "I can't tell you why he's there, but my dreams came true when I got to sit next to him. It was a beautiful form of heaven," says Walker.

4. She's a chameleon. Pre-Apt. 23, Walker, 26, convincingly played teens Hazel on Gossip Girl and Becca on The Good Wife. "That's the wonderful thing about makeup," she says. "When I'm not wearing it, I look 12 years old."

5. She does a mean accent...kinda. "I love to do accents and dialects," confesses Walker. "I'll call for pizza delivery late at night and pretend I'm British, but then they'll get there and I'll forget to do it again and it'll be weird."

DON'T TRUST THE B---- IN APT. 23

SEASON PREMIERE
9:30/8:30c, ABC
abc.com, hulu.com,
iTunes; Twitter: @Apt23

This season, June (Walker) will continue trying to find her way in NYC and attempt to land another job on Wall Street

NCIS 8/7, CBS, cbs.com Gibbs, Tony, Ziva and McGee investigate when the crew of a missing Navy helicopter wash up on shore without their pilot or an explanation for their crash.

MATT'S PICK

New Girl 9/8c,

Fox, fox.com Can a man give another man tasty baked goods? Roommates Nick, Schmidt and Winston argue over the limits of their bromance when Schmidt surprises Nick with a cookie.

Happy Endings 9:30/8:30c, ABC, abc.com The friends-com returns with Max cruising Penny's physical therapist, Brad hiding his employment status and Dave and Alex trying to keep things casual. Needless to say, none of these things ends happily. Season premiere fox.com Things get wild when Melanie Griffith's Tamara follows daughter Sabrina and Jimmy to a couples retreat with her new boy toy, Roberto (Wilmer Valderrama).

GUEST STAR ALERT!

Raising Hope 8/7c, Fox,

BOTTOM: GREG GAYNE/FOX